The island's premier resort located in Tucker's Point, is pleased to announce that it has earned a Gold Badge in the 2020 U.S. News & World Report Best Hotels Rankings and was ranked No. 1 in Bermuda. This marks Rosewood Bermuda's fourth year ranked as a top hotel in Bermuda. The prestigious Gold Badge signifies the top ten percent of all ranked luxury hotels in their respective countries.

"We are incredibly proud to receive both a Gold Badge and first place award in Bermuda," says Managing Director Sascha Hemmann.

“Since re-opening two years ago we have remained committed to providing our guests with the best experience possible, and receiving this award demonstrates the dedication of our team.”

Rosewood Bermuda reopened in April 2018 following a comprehensive renovation. Occupying 240 stunning coastal acres, the scenic Bermuda luxury resort possesses an all-enveloping atmosphere of charm and refinement. The modernized property features glorious pink-sand beaches, elevated guestrooms and suites, an exclusive Beach Club and Golf Clubhouse, reimagined dining outlets, a revitalized spa and vibrant lobby bar.

Long renowned as one of the most trusted resources in the industry, the prestigious list evaluates more than 30,000 luxury properties across over 400 destinations in the United States, Europe, Bermuda, Mexico, Canada and the Caribbean, considering both expert and guest sentiment in addition to annual industry accolades.
