Overview

A hit with guests since opening in 2009, this newly renovated, 92-room luxury resort set in the "Jewel of the Atlantic" is praised by travelers for its sophisticated atmosphere. Located on Bermuda's northeastern edge, Rosewood Bermuda boasts views of Castle Harbour, Harrington Sound and the Atlantic Ocean. Guest rooms are airy and modern, ornamented in neutral shades with stone and wood accents. Some suites come equipped private fireplaces, dining areas and wet bars. Once you're feeling refreshed, head to the Sense spa for a treatment or hit the links at the 18-hole Tucker's Point Golf Club. Recent visitors praise this Rosewood outpost's refined ambience and the kid-oriented Rose Buds program, which caters to youngsters with golf, cooking and tennis lessons. At the end of the day, chow down at one of the four distinct on-site restaurants. Guests only complaint – the high prices.
