Perched atop a lush hillside overlooking turquoise waves below, the oceanfront rooms at Rosewood Bermuda offer unrivaled views. There's nothing like taking breakfast on the balcony looking out past the cabana-clad pool to the Atlantic Ocean. The hotel features elegant and stylish decor that mixes a stately British influence with a laid-back island feel, including white marble countertops, rooms with cozy fireplaces, brightly colored pillows for pops of color, artwork depicting beach scenes, and deep clawfoot soaking tubs. The options available are ideal for families of all sizes, ranging from standard rooms to multi-bedroom suites and even full residences with kitchens. The larger rooms also include comfy, oversized couches and dining tables so you and the kids can have time apart in separate bedrooms before coming back together to share a meal or just put your feet up and watch a movie.

IDYLLIC ISLAND SETTING

One of the best parts about visiting Bermuda is just how close it is. A quick two-hour flight from East Coast hubs like New York and Boston will land you in paradise. The Rosewood Bermuda creates a relaxing haven while still making it easy to explore the rest of the island. Just a quick jaunt down the road you can discover underground wonders at the magical Crystal and Fantasy Caves. Stop in for a snack (or a drink for the adults) at the iconic Swizzle Inn right across the street after. Bermuda also boasts incredible beaches perfect for families with soft sands and gentle waters, like Horseshoe Bay Beach, Elbow Beach and Warwick Long Bay. Have the front desk grab you a cab and head to Hamilton for shopping, delicious restaurant options and interactive exhibits kids will love at the Bermuda Underwater Exploration Institute. There's always the option to get out on the water on jet skis, paddleboards, or on a boat or snorkel tour. And if your family is certified, Bermuda has some of the best dive sites in the world.

ON-PROPERTY OPTIONS GALORE

While all the above options mean you'll never be bored in Bermuda, you don't have to leave the Rosewood Bermuda to find adventure and fun. The resort has its own private beach with a Beach Club that's open in the high season and ready to cater to your every whim with food and beverage options and towel and lounge chair service. The hotel also offers guests multiple swimming pools, tennis courts, a picturesque golf course and fun activities that range from Hidden Gems tours for the kids to gin tastings for the adults. If you work up an appetite, there's plenty of options to keep you satiated, from grabbing a casual bite poolside to taking breakfast on the terrace at Island Brasserie to savoring upscale Italian at Sul Verde and more. The Sense Spa is the ultimate indulgence with its own calming reflecting pool and treatments from traditional massages to the Bermuda Triangle, a combo of splash therapy, an aloe massage and a refreshing citrus-inspired facial.
