charged for lost or stolen Membership Cards or in any situation where the Club account number is changed.

6. Each member may receive such identification decals and other insignia as the Club may from time to time designate, and shall display such insignia as required by the Club.

MEMBER DUES AND CHARGES

1. Members' dues will be billed on a semi-annual cycle unless otherwise determined by the Club. Dues are paid bi-annually on June 30 and December 31.
2. All members shall provide the Club with one valid credit or debit card to which the member authorizes the Club to charge dues, fees and charges in the event that the member does not pay outstanding amounts due on his or her club account, when due, and the member shall substitute such credit or debit card with another credit or debit card when it expires. Such charges, other than semi-annual dues, will be billed on a monthly basis and members will receive a written statement of their charges. A member is entitled to charge privileges at the Club so long as his or her membership is in good standing. Cash payments may or may not be permitted as determined by the Club from time to time.
3. All food, beverage, merchandise and services of the Club charged to the member's Club account will be billed monthly and each member's Club account shall be due and payable upon receipt of the monthly statement.
4. Club accounts shall be deemed delinquent from the date first billed if payment is not received within 30 days after the date of the monthly statement. Past due bills will be subject to a late payment charge per month as determined by the Club from time to time, but not to exceed the maximum amount permitted by law. A late payment charge which is collected in excess of the maximum amount permitted by law shall either be credited to the member's account or be refunded if no amount remains unpaid on the member's account. The late payment charge shall accrue from the date of the monthly statement until the account is paid in full. Members having past due bills may be charged a reinstatement fee at the discretion of the Club to reactivate an account once it is deemed delinquent.
5. If a member fails to pay any Club account within 30 days of when it is first billed, the Club shall have the right to suspend membership privileges in the Club at any time until the delinquent account is paid in full. Continued delinquency for a period of 90 days from the date a Club account is first billed or repeated incidents of delinquency by a member may result in termination of membership in the Club.
6. The Club reserves the right to implement a credit card billing system such that all dues, fees and charges are billed to each member's approved credit card. In the event the Club implements such a system, it will give notice to such effect to the members. Each member must then furnish the Club with an approved credit card to which the member authorizes the Club to charge dues, fees and charges. The credit card company shall pay the dues, fees and charges to the Club. Members will receive a written statement of their monthly dues, fees and charges, which have been charged to their credit card. All members agree to promptly pay directly to the Club any amounts not paid by the credit card company upon written notice from the Club. If not paid within 10 days after written notice from the Club, a late payment charge as established by the Club (but not to exceed the maximum amount permitted by law) shall begin to accrue from the date of the written notice until payment in full. A late payment charge which is collected in excess of the maximum amount permitted by law shall either be credited to the member's account or be refunded if no amount remains unpaid on the member's account. The member shall be obligated to keep a valid approved credit card on file with the Club at all times.

7. When a membership is issued in the name of more than one person, each person shall be jointly and severally liable for all dues, fees and other charges and liabilities associated with the membership.
8. If the Club account of any member is delinquent, the Club may at its option take whatever action it deems necessary to effect collection, including without limitation, suspension or termination of a membership or legal action. If the Club commences any legal action to collect any amount owed by any member or to enforce any other liability of any member to the Club, and if judgment is obtained by the Club, the member shall also be liable for all costs and expenses of such legal action and reasonable attorneys' fees, including any fees required in connection with appellate proceedings.
9. All dues, fees and charges will be based on Bermuda dollars, but can be paid in U.S. dollars or Bermuda dollars. The Club reserves the right incrementally increase dues on a yearly basis.

Each member shall be responsible for filing with the Membership Office, in writing, preferably on a form provided by the Club, his or her mailing address and any changes thereto, where the member wishes all notices and invoices of the Club to be sent. A member shall be deemed to have received mailings from the Club ten days after they have been mailed to the address on file with the Club. In the absence of an address on file at the Membership Office, any Club mailing may, with the same effect described above, be addressed as the Director of Club Operations may think is most likely to cause its prompt delivery.
2. The Club must be notified in writing of any change of address. Failure to do so shall constitute a waiver of the right to receive Club notices, bulletins and any other communications, and a violation of these Rules and Regulations.

CLUB SERVICES AND ACTIVITIES

1. The Club provides a variety of social, cultural and recreational events in which all members are encouraged to participate. Any member, family member, guest or other person who attends one of the events operated, organized, arranged or sponsored by the Club, consents to the taking of photographs, electronic or film, and videos and the posting of such photographs and videos on the Club's member only portion of the website and waives any claim or objection to such photography or videography. conduct shall be deemed by the Club to be likely to endanger the welfare, safety, harmony or good reputation of the Club or its members or is otherwise improper, may be reprimanded, fined, suspended or expelled from the Club and have all privileges associated with the membership suspended or terminated by the Club. The Club shall be the sole judge of what constitutes improper conduct, but improper conduct will include, without limitation: (i) failing to meet eligibility for membership, (ii) submitting false information on the Membership Agreement, (iii) allowing his or her Membership Card to be used by another person, (iv) failing to pay any amount owed to the Club in a proper and timely manner, (v) failing to abide by the rules and regulations as set forth herein and as established by the Club from time to time, (vi) abusing Club personnel or employees, or (vii) acting in a manner incompatible with the standard of conduct of the existing membership or which would likely injure the reputation of the members or the Club.

2. Any member accused of improper conduct shall be notified of the Club's proposed disciplinary action and shall be given an opportunity to be heard by the Club to show cause why he or she should not be disciplined. If such member desires to be heard, the Club shall set a time and date (not less than ten days thereafter) for a hearing. While such complaint is being considered by the Club, the member shall enjoy the privileges of the Club. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Club may, without notice and without a hearing, immediately suspend some or all privileges associated with a membership and/or, after notice, terminate a member, for failure to pay in a proper and timely manner dues, fees or any other amounts owed to the Club.
3. The Club may restrict or suspend some or all of a member's, family member's and/or guest's Club privileges. If the Club determines that a member's conduct or the conduct of his or her family or guest is improper, the Club may terminate the membership, suspend or restrict the member's membership privileges, or restrict the use privileges of the member's family or guest whose conduct was improper. No member is entitled, on account of any termination, restriction or suspension, to any refund of any initiation fee, dues or any other fees. During the restriction or suspension, dues and other charges shall continue to accrue and shall be paid in full prior to reinstatement as a member in good standing.
4. Any membership of a member who has paid an initiation fee which has been terminated hereunder shall be deemed resigned. All membership privileges shall cease upon termination of membership.

MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION

Each and every dispute, claim or other matter of disagreement concerning the rights, obligations or remedies of the Club and its members under the Membership Plan, Rules and Regulations, Membership Agreements and other Club membership documents shall only be decided by mediation, and if necessary, arbitration, in accordance with the following provisions:

Mediation

1. Within ten days after the receipt of notice of a dispute by one party from the other, the parties shall attempt in good faith to negotiate for a period of 30 days in an effort to resolve the dispute.
2. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute within such 30-day period, they shall retain a mutually acceptable mediator (i.e., a partner or principal of an accounting, consulting, legal or engineering firm with experience in the country club and/or members' club industry) to assist them in resolving the dispute within ten additional days, failing which they shall each retain a mediator within ten additional days and the two mediators thus chosen shall together act as the mediator for the purpose of this paragraph. If either party shall fail to appoint a mediator as required hereunder, the mediator appointed by the other party shall be the sole mediator. Within 30 days after the mediators (or such single mediator) have been retained, the mediators (or such single mediator) shall, on a non-binding basis, advise the parties in writing of their views. The fees and expenses of the mediators (or such single mediator) shall be borne equally.
3. If the parties are still unable to resolve the dispute within such 30-day period, the parties shall resort to the arbitration procedures set forth below.

Arbitration

1. Failing a resolution of any dispute through mediation, the parties shall submit the matter to be determined by binding arbitration. The arbitration shall consist of three arbitrators (the "Arbitration Panel") (unless the parties mutually agree to only one arbitrator) as follows: the Club and the member shall each select one arbitrator ten days after receipt of notice by the other party invoking arbitration. The two arbitrators then shall jointly select the third arbitrator within ten days, failing which the third arbitrator shall be appointed by, and in accordance with the rules of, the Appointments Committee of the Bermuda Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. All three arbitrators shall be required to be partners or principals of accounting, legal, consulting or engineering firms, at least one of whom shall have experience in dealing with matters involving the country club and/or members' club industry. The decision of two of the three arbitrators shall be deemed to be the decision of the Arbitration Panel and shall be binding on both parties as hereinafter provided.
2. The arbitrators shall investigate the facts and shall hold hearings at which the parties may present evidence and arguments, be represented by counsel and conduct cross examination. Within 15 days after the closing of the arbitration hearing, the Arbitration Panel shall prepare and distribute to the parties a writing setting forth the Arbitration Panel's findings of facts and conclusions of law relating to the dispute, including the reasons for the giving or denial of any award. The decision of the arbitrators, where appropriate, shall take into account the operation of the Club and the Club Facilities in comparison with the operation of other similar clubs in Bermuda.

3. Judgment upon the decision rendered in such arbitration shall be entered and enforced by any court having jurisdiction thereof and the judgment shall be entered unless the award is vacated, modified or corrected as provided by law. The arbitration proceedings shall be governed by the rules governing the Bermuda Branch of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators then in force and shall take place in Bermuda. The prevailing party, as designated by the arbitrators, shall be entitled to recover, from the party found by the arbitrators to have breached the terms of this Agreement, all costs and reasonable attorney's and paraprofessionals' fees and related costs, fees or expenses of the arbitration.
4. In the event the member is the prevailing party, the Club shall be required to pay for all costs, fees and expenses incurred as a result of the arbitration and will not be entitled to pass on such costs, fees or expenses to the Club or its members, in the form of increased membership dues and/or user fees. In the event the Club is the prevailing party, the member shall be required to pay the costs, fees or expenses incurred as a result of the arbitration from his or her own funds.

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

The Club is committed to providing a friendly, supportive and productive environment for its members, guests and employees. Harassment of any kind by members, guests, employees (or anyone else doing business with the Club) will not be tolerated. This includes sexual harassment as well as any harassment based upon an individual's race, religion, age, sex, color, citizenship status, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, handicap or disability. The Club has delegated responsibility to the Director of Club Operations to deal with any and all allegations of sexual misconduct and/or other types of harassment. The Director of Club Operations' duties and responsibilities are specific and detailed later in this policy statement.

The process described below deals with sexual harassment. Nevertheless, the procedures set forth in this policy apply equally to harassment based upon race, religion, age, sex, color, citizenship status, marital status, sexual orientation, national origin, handicap or disability.

Explanation of Sexual Harassment

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) defines sexual harassment as:

1. unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature where, either explicitly or implicitly, submission to such conduct is considered a term or condition of an individual's continued employment; or
2. making submission to or rejection of such conduct the basis for employment/membership decisions affecting the employee or Member; or

3. where such conduct has the effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or social environment.

Subsections (1) and (2) of the above EEOC definition cover what is known as "quid pro quo" sexual harassment - sexual favors or conduct requested in return for job benefits or job retention. Subsection (3) of the EEOC's definition covers what is known as hostile environment harassment - when the conduct unreasonably interferes with an individual's ability to perform his or her job, or creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or social environment.

Sexual harassment does not refer to occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It refers to behavior that is not welcome, that is personally offensive, that debilitates morale, and that, therefore, interferes with work effectiveness and/or Member enjoyment.

Some examples of such conduct include, but are not limited to, the following:

- unwelcome or offensive sexual advances
- sexual jokes
- pressure for sexual favors
- inappropriate touching
- leering
- intrusive personal questions and/or questions of a sexual nature
- visual displays of degrading images or stereotypes
- analogies using sexual or sex-related terms
- using derogatory terms when referring to females, such as "babe," or "dumb females"
- screaming, shouting or using insulting language of a sexual nature

Individuals will have different tolerance levels and personal definitions of "inappropriate behavior." Therefore, employees have an obligation not only to monitor their own behavior, but also to advise others when they feel or interpret another's behavior toward them as inappropriate, offensive and/or in a manner that creates a hostile or intimidating environment.

Reporting a Complaint

The Club encourages reporting of all incidents of sexual harassment, regardless of who the offender may be. The Club encourages individuals who believe they are being harassed to notify the offender in a prompt and firm manner that his or her behavior is unwelcome, yet the Club also recognizes that disparities in position between an alleged offender and a victim may make such a conversation difficult or impossible. In the event that such informal, direct communication between individuals is either ineffective, difficult or impossible, the following steps should be followed.

- Notification of Appropriate Persons

Individuals who believe they have been subjected to sexual harassment can report the incident to the Director of Club Operations. All complaints of alleged harassment will be documented and will be handled with discretion. The Club will maintain a complete written record of each complaint and how it was investigated and resolved. If the Director of Club Operations is the offending party, then the incident can be reported to the designated anti-harassment member of the Club Owner's executive team ("Club Owner Designee").

- Timeframe for Reporting Complaint

The Club encourages prompt reporting of sexual harassment complaints so that appropriate investigation and action may be taken.

- Protection Against Retaliation

The Club will not in any way retaliate against an individual who makes a report of sexual harassment nor permit any employee or member of the Club to do so. Retaliation is a serious violation of this policy and should be reported immediately. Any person found to have retaliated against another individual for reporting sexual harassment will be subject to the same disciplinary action provided for those determined to have violated the Club's policy (see "Investigating and Resolving the Complaint" below).

Investigating and Resolving the Complaint

- Investigation/Confidentiality

Any allegation of sexual harassment brought to the attention of the Director of Club Operations will be promptly investigated. Once approached, the Director of Club Operations' responsibility is to then inform the Club Owner Designee. It is intended that the only other member(s) of the Club Owner's executive team that would be advised, if necessary, would be any person who would need to get involved in any required investigatory process. Every effort shall be made to keep all matters related to the investigation and various reports and recommendations confidential.

- Resolution of Complaint/Disciplinary Actions

The Club specifically prohibits harassment by any member, guest, Director of Club Operations or Club Owner employee or group of employees. Anyone violating this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, which may include any one or combination of the following:

- verbal/written warning
- additional sexual harassment training or mandatory professional counseling for Club employees
- probation or suspension (with or without pay) for Club employees
- probation or suspension of Club privileges for Members or guests
- termination of employment
- termination of membership

After investigation by the Club Owner Designee, the Club Owner Designee shall recommend appropriate disciplinary action, and provide notice of such recommendation to the complainant and the accused.

Individuals found to have filed false and malicious complaints of harassment will be subject to disciplinary action. This does not apply to complaints that, even if erroneous, are made in good faith.

LOSS OR DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY OR INSTANCES OF PERSONAL INJURY

1. Each member as a condition of membership and each guest as a condition of invitation to the Club Facilities assumes sole responsibility for his or her property. The Club or any manager/operator of the Club Facilities shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to any personal property used or stored on the Club Facilities, whether in lockers or elsewhere. Any such personal property which may have been left in or on the facilities for six months or more without payment of storage thereon may be sold by the Club, with or without notice, at a public or private sale, or may be otherwise disposed of, and the proceeds, if any, may be retained by the Club.
2. No person shall remove from the room in which it is placed or from the Club's premises any property or furniture belonging to the Club without proper written authorization.
3. Every member of the Club shall be liable for any property damage caused by the member, any guest or any family member. The cost of such damage shall be charged to the responsible member's Club account.
4. Any member, family member, guest or other person who, in any manner, makes use of or accepts the use of any apparatus, appliance, facility, privilege or service whatsoever owned, leased or operated by the Club or the Resort, including without limitation, the use of golf carts, or who engages in any contest, game, function, exercise, competition or other activity operated, organized, arranged or sponsored by the Club or the owner or operator of the Resort, either on or off the Club's or the Resort's premises, shall do so at his or her own risk. The member and his or her family members and guests shall hold RWTP Hotel Limited (the "Company"), RWTP Golf Limited, TP Holdco Limited, any manager of the Club Facilities or Resort Facilities, their affiliates, their wholly owned subsidiaries, their successors and assigns and their respective shareholders, partners, directors, officers, managers, members, employees, representatives, agents and members of any Club committees (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") harmless from any and all loss, cost, claim, injury, damage or liability sustained or incurred by him or her, resulting there from or arising out of or incident to membership in the Club and/or from any act or omission of any of the Indemnified Parties. Any member shall have, owe and perform the same obligation to the Indemnified Parties hereunder in respect to any such loss, cost, claim, injury, damage or liability sustained or incurred by any guest or family member.

5. Should any party bound by these Rules and Regulations bring suit against any of the Indemnified Parties in connection with any event operated, organized, arranged or sponsored by the Club or on any other claim or matter in connection with membership in the Club, and fail to obtain judgment therein against any one or more of them, said party shall be liable to the prevailing Indemnified Parties for all costs and expenses incurred by them in the defence of such suit, including court costs and attorneys' fees and expenses through all appellate proceedings.

RESERVATIONS AND CANCELLATIONS

1. Dinner reservations may be required as determined by the Club. Members are asked to assist in maintaining required service levels by making reservations for dining prior to 5:00 p.m. on the day involved. Reservations for parties of more than ten persons will be accommodated on an "as available" basis. A 24-hour notice is requested for parties of more than ten persons and a set menu should be arranged whenever possible. The courtesy of providing notice of necessary changes or cancellations is requested no later than 3:00 p.m. on the day involved.
2. Reservations are required for most activities of the Club and shall be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis by pre-registering with the appropriate personnel of the Club.
3. For all functions of the Club held in the dining rooms of the Club, tables will be assigned on a first-call, first-choice basis. Reservations for special tables will not be accepted.
4. Reservations for dining will be held for only 15 minutes after the reserved time.
5. No member or committee shall plan or set dates for dining room activities without prior approval of the Club.
6. Reservations for Member Nights at the Resort are subject to availability and black-out dates as determined by the Resort as well as the terms and conditions set forth in the Schedule of Dues, Fees and Charges.

GRATUITIES

1. For the convenience of all members, a gratuity percentage, as determined from time to time by the Club, may be added to all food and beverage sales. A member may increase the gratuity percentage by signing the ticket invoice and changing the amount of the gratuity as the member deems appropriate.
2. Cash tipping is not permitted by members of the Club.
3. It is customary for the Club to send a letter providing an opportunity for members to contribute a suggested contribution to a Holiday Fund for all Club employees. Payment of such contribution will be voluntary and will be included on the contributing member's November bill. This Holiday Fund provides the members with an opportunity to show their appreciation to Club employees during the holiday season. Club management shall be responsible for the distribution of these funds.

CHILDREN

1. Unless permitted by the Club, children under 16 years of age are not allowed at the Club Facilities unless accompanied and supervised by an adult.
2. Children under the lawful drinking age are not permitted in any lounge unless accompanied by an adult.
3. Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult when playing golf in the case of starting times which are before 12 noon. In order to play unaccompanied by an adult at other times, children under the age of 18 are required to have a certification from the Golf Professional indicating attainment of appropriate skill and etiquette levels.
4. Members are responsible for the conduct and safety of their children when enjoying the Club Facilities.

ATTIRE

1. It is expected that members will choose to dress in a fashion befitting the surroundings and atmosphere provided in the setting of the Club. It is also expected that members will advise their guests of the dress requirements. The Club may publish dress requirements from time to time.
2. Gentlemen and ladies are requested to dress in a fashion compatible with the appropriate occasion.
3. Shirts and shoes must be worn at all times when on Club Facilities, other than at the locker, pool and beach facilities.

GUEST PRIVILEGES

Guest privileges may be extended under the rules established by the Club from time to time. Although it is the intention of the Club to accommodate guests without inconvenience to the members, the Club reserves the right to limit the number of guests a member may have at the Club on any given day or over the course of a membership year and the number of times a particular guest may use the Club Facilities in any given membership year. The Club shall establish from time to time the rate of the daily guest fees, charges and the rules and regulations for use of the Club Facilities by guests. Guest privileges may be denied, withdrawn or revoked at any time for reasons considered sufficient by the Club, in its sole and absolute discretion. The Club reserves the right, from time to time, to limit the availability of golf starting times for guests. GOLF COURSE ETIQUETTE

Persons using the golf course should do their part to make a round of golf a pleasant experience for everyone at the Club. Here are some suggestions:

1. Do not waste time. Anticipate the club or clubs you may need, and go directly to your ball. Always be near your ball to play promptly when it is your turn. If a player is delayed in making his shot, it would be courteous for such player to indicate to another player to play which should not be deemed playing out of turn.
2. The time required to "hole out" on and around the green is a chief cause of slow play. Study and clear the line of your putt while others are doing the same. Be ready to putt when it is your turn.
3. Be sociable, but reserve your extended conversations for the 19th hole.

4. When approaching a green, park your golf cart on the cart path on the best direct line to the next tee, in order to save significant time. Never leave the golf cart in front of the green where you will have to go back and get it while the following players wait for you to move on.
5. When play of a hole is completed, leave the green promptly and proceed to the next tee without delay. Record the scoring for the completed hole while the others in your group are playing from the next tee.
6. If you are not holding your place on the course (see General Golf Rules), allow the players behind to play through. Do the same if you stop to search for a lost ball.
7. The golf rangers will report slow play and all breaches of golf etiquette to the pro shop. Appropriate action will be taken by the pro shop personnel.
